

The Subdepartment of Baltic Studies of the Department of General Linguistics, East Asian Comparative Linguistics and Baltic Studies at the Faculty of Polish Studies, University of Warsaw

is delighted to host an international scientific conference in Baltic Studies

FORMS OF FREEDOM – LITERATURE. CULTURE. LANGUAGE

The conference, held to celebrate 30 years of independence of Baltic states, will take place from 14–15 September 2020

at the University of Warsaw (ul. Krakowskie Przedmieście 26/28)

The conference will explore many aspects of freedom: its forms, consequences, changes that it has been stimulating – in languages, literatures, and cultures of Lithuania and Latvia, including their relations with other cultures.

The scope of research might include the latest phenomena (taking place during the last 30 years) as well as earlier ones, reflecting freedom-oriented activities and stances concerning artists, literary characters, audiences, or speakers of a language.

We invite you to submit proposals for 20-minute papers in Lithuanian, Latvian, Polish, or English, along with abstracts (max 1000 characters), using the online form:

<https://forms.gle/k9u67Mrs2v5HB5gz8>

by 15 May 2020

The conference fee, including publication of conference proceedings in the series Prace bałtystyczne (volume 8), is 60 EUR (250 PLN), and it should be paid by 15 June 2020. Accepted participants will receive details of the bank transfer at a later date.

The honorary patronage over the conference has been taken by His Excellency Eduardas Borisovas, the Ambassador of the Republic of Lithuania to Poland
His Excellency Edgars Bondars, the Ambassador of the Republic of Latvia to Poland

Organizing committee: prof. dr hab. Romuald Huszcza, dr hab. Danuta Roszko, dr hab. Inesa Szulska, dr Ana Romančuk, dr Joanna Tabor, mgr Marta Grzybowska
e-mail: formsoffreedom@gmail.com